

Kerry County Council
Information Sessions for Community & Voluntary Organisations

'This work was carried out professionally and enthusiastically...The ensuing report written by Paul was very well received by all stakeholders and is being utilised in the planning process...The group would have no hesitation in contracting Paul to carry out similar work in the future'

'Paul has strong group facilitation skills and understands what techniques work best with different groups. He ensures that he understands the brief and develops a tailor-made proposal for the work. He is professional and thorough'
